Events Planned By Hillel Group

Future plans outlined by Hillel for this year include a colloquium for all New England Chapters of the organization and a brunch, forum and dance to be held after the UB-Brandeis game, for which Hillel will play host.

These plans were presented before 200 members of Hillel at a meeting held last Wednesday evening in the Music recital Hall with President Norm Shimelman presiding. Other members of the executive committee are Paula Gorden, vice-president; Adele Berman and Joyce Rimberg, corresponding secretaries; Sandy Strauss, recording secretary; and Al Marenoff, treasurer.

Mrs. Judith Cohn, the new Hillel advisor; Mrs. August, Hillel chairman from Bridgeport B'nai Brith; and Mr. Herbert Kramer were also present.

Following refreshments, which were donated by B'nai Brith of Rodolph Shalom, dancing took place.

Pi Delta Epsilon Meets

There will be an organizational meeting of Pi Delta Epsilon Honorary Journalism Fraternity, Monday at 5 P. M. in the Conference Room of Alumni Hall.

At this time, plans for the new Bulletin Board to be erected in front of the Technology Building, will be discussed.

Council Treasurer Explains Increased Student Allocations

This year the task of allocating money to the many campus organizations was easier than it has ever been. Because of the largest enrolling class in more than five years, there was more money given to Student Council—a total of $12,000.

Again, because of these new students, we of the Financial Committee felt we should give these campus organizations an increase in allocations. That is, if they showed due cause for an increase. We feel in this way we can help to build up and better these campus organizations.

The following is the amount of money the Financial Committee voted to allocate to the organizations listed.

Debating Society $235, Sociology Colloquium $400, PRF $475, NSA $175, Engineering Society

Cast For Thunder Chosen; 'Roaring Twenties' is Theme

Al Dickason, director of Campus Thunder, has selected the cast for 1955, with rehearsals already in progress. Al, in addressing the respondents to the cast call, said, "I cannot pick everyone, but there are three other productions during the year in which they can participate."

Ten Week Course Offered Industry By Bpt. Gas Co.

A 10-week course in the "Techniques of Supervision" which has been offered to a group of supervisors of the Bridgeport Gas Company by the University, began Tuesday evening on the UB campus.

E. C. Wallof, director of E. C. Wallof & Association, management consultants, will teach the course.

Course material will cover modern systems of industry, economics, the supervisor's job, human relations, industrial organization and other related subjects.

Participating in planning the course were Bridgeport Gas Company officials Ronald A. Malony, president; Earl B. Snell, treasurer; Henry V. Lindeman, vice-president; Mr. Wallof and Frank Wright, director of the division of industrial and community services at UB.

If there is anyone that did not receive a part in Thunder, who wishes to work behind the scenes, contact Jack Zalkind any night at the Little Theatre.

The cast of this Thunder production is: Gerry Bennett, Al Zavadsky, Arnold V. Frost, Frances Soriano, and Caryl Blank with special parts. Others with special parts include: Dennis Alan Grayston, William Bartlett, Kemp Batchelor III, William Downing, Roger Vass, and Charles Potkay. The dancing chorus will include: Valerie Burns, Yolande Delmore, Bettianne Fisch, Betty Lou Leonardo, and Rosalie Printz.

The Thunderettes, Connecticut's most interesting, will feature such notables as: John P. Barrett, Philip Bush, Stephen Grasso, Herbert Johanson, and Joseph Kraynak. This bevy of beauty also includes: Cookie Kushnick, Stuart Plotnick, John Rapillo, and Ignazio Salone.

The girls chorus consists of twelve beauties: June Bartram, Margaret Brown, Patricia Creel, Jennie Fogel, Gail Frazer, Diane Jacobson, Sue Portney, Madolyn Pugh, Marcia Robinson, Jeri Sheslow, Mitzi Vass, and Tivy Wiseinski.

SCA Announces Student Trips

How would you like a weekend of outdoor fun? How about a little boating and fishing before winter sets in? Well, the UB Student Christian Association cordially invites one and all to attend their meeting to be held October 11 from 5 to 5:30 P. M. in the faculty lounge in Bishop Hall.

The meeting is planned to iron out the activities for the coming year, which includes a weekend in the beautiful Berkshires. Further information on the outing can be obtained at the meeting.

Spanish Muralist Painting Library

Hipolite Hidalgo de Cavedes, internationally known Spanish muralist and portrait artist from Havana, Cuba, arrived on campus recently to begin the painting of murals for the Carlson Memorial Library.

POU Sponsors Freshman Tea

Last Sunday, the sophomore class of Dental Hygienists sponsored a tea for all incoming Dental Hygienists. The purpose of the tea was to welcome all the Freshmen to Dental Hygiene and to the sorority, POU.

Each freshman was accompanied by her "big sister" and introduced to members of the faculty of The Fones School and to the other members of the sorority.

The Social Committee, headed by Emmy Rutzen, did a splendid job in making the affair the success that it was. Both the faculty guests, and Alumni enjoyed it very much.

Among the honorary guests were Mr. Frances Dolan, Mrs. S. Spiltoir, and Mrs. B. Howard, clinical instructors; Dr. Robert Strang, director of the School of Hygiene, and Dr. Oster, professor of Pharmacology. Others included Dr. Claire Fulcher, Mrs. Marion Lunn, and Mrs. Mae Lewis.

Arrangements are being made by the sorority in regard to pledging this February and all Freshmen are invited to pledge.

Memorial Trophy Founded By Fraternity Brothers

By Mickey Vall

The James Karapanos Memorial Trophy, an award to honor the top intramural athlete of the year, has been founded by Alpha Gamma Phi fraternity in memory of their late brother, who was killed this past summer in an automobile accident.

President Michael Belmont, in making the announcement of the trophy, said it will encompass football, basketball, volleyball and softball as well as any other sport added to the University's intramural slate. It will be donated in May at the conclusion of the softball season, to the most valuable all-around athlete, as noted by a special committee. Sportsmanship will also be an integral part in the selection.

The selection's committee will be made up of one man from each team to be picked by the team captain and all officials, headed by Nicholas D'Aluisio, director of intramural sports. Tentative plans call for the permanent trophy to be set up in Alumni Hall with a certificate going to the winner.

Karapanos, 25, was a member of the football and baseball teams. He also played junior varsity basketball and was active in the affairs of the Eastern Orthodox Club. A graduate of Turtollette High School in North Grovendale, he was a veteran of the Navy. He majored in physical education and was to have begun his third year in September.

During his career, Senor de Cavedes has painted more than 200 murals, now displayed in public and private buildings in Europe and Cuba.

The mural consists of three major sections. One side of the main hallway will contain pictures illustrating the industrial life of Bridgeport. Depicted in this, will be the city founders, and the modern industries.

The background will show clouds, forming in the shape of human hands. The other side of this hallway will represent the cultural life of Bridgeport. This section of the mural will contain such things as a little red school house, a printing shop with Bridgeport's first newspaper, the first public library here, a theatre, and the founder of The University of Bridgeport, President Emeritus Everett Cortright. WICC Air Waves Campus Program

Hey kids, want to be on the radio? If so, UB's program on WICC, Varsity Time, is awaiting you. The show, which consists mainly of platters and campus gossip, is looking for two capable students to handle it. If you are interested, contact Vic Muncie, Public Relations Office, Cortright Hall, for an audition appointment. The program is scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

Another radio show, starring Bernie Frank and Audrey Thilo, is now on WNAB, Thursday evenings from 9:30. Be sure to tune in and hear them, on Along Park Place.

Open For Criticism

How many times have you heard that old, trite, wornout expression that an organization is no better than its members? That a radio station is no better than its programs? That a newspaper is no better than its stories?

No doubt that familiar expression is quite true in numerous instances. But the times that an organization, a radio station or a newspaper does open its doors for constructive criticism, all the noise dies.

Well, now is the chance for you to be heard. You can rest assured that your opinions, contrary to popular beliefs, will not be filed in a circular file. If you have any comments, good or bad, now is the time to publicize them.

But, for the love of Mike, aim your comments towards the place where they will do the most good. Not at your sympathetic roommate or your understanding companions, but at US!!!

Whether you like it or not, The SCRIBE is the official publication of the University of Bridgeport. By directing your feelings toward us, and only us, it is possible to "air" your views before the student body and not just your cohorts.

If you feel that The SCRIBE is not giving you your money's worth, or not living up to the reputation of a college newspaper, tell us so.

Write a letter, scribble a note, send a telegram or tell a woman, but D—— it, tell us. Sign your name (which will be withheld on request) and get it to The SCRIBE office, third floor of Alumni Hall.

Student Council Resumes

The first Student Council Meeting was called to order Tuesday by President David Barr, who set aside the usual order of business to give a talk on Council's policy.

In a statement to the student body, Barr said:

"Your student government is now in full swing. It consists of your elected representatives, men and women who show initiative, determination, and the capability to carry out your wishes. In pursuing our aims, some of which are mentioned here, we (Student Council) shall be guided by a policy shaped by the students, themselves. I am confident that the Student Council will become a highly efficient, beneficial, and powerful government through concentrated effort, yours and mine." The remaining part of his address was based on the following points.

The attendance of all council members will be enforced rigidly, and members will be required to be in their seats by 5 after 10. All members will dress for meetings in a manner befitting an elected representative. No food or beverage will be allowed in the conference room during the meeting.

On October 25, all classes will meet in order to promote class consciousness. Written reports will be submitted to Roberta Aronson (Executive Secretary) for preparation and distribution of sufficient copies for all members. Committee chairmen will meet with Nick Panuzio (Vice-President), acting as chairman, whenever he calls such meetings to discuss progress.

Council's procedure will be based on the basic rules given in The Gavel, Robert's Rules of Order, and Points of Order. The minutes will include pertinent discussion and detailed account of voting.

Council is the strongest organization on campus, and comes above all else and should be its members prime interest. Some of the points of discussion for the coming year include: allocations to organizations, improved lighting conditions, school mascot selected, successful operation of WRUB, and better use and enlargement of UB facilities.

The appointments to the various committees are: Financial—Bert Siegel (Chairman), Bill Bartlett, Bette Weber, Sam Goldberg, and Elise Wolff. Ethics—Jan Fine and Bill Bartlett. Publicity—Wes Hobby (Chairman), Roberta Aronson, Bette Weber, Hal Nevins, and Elise Wolff. Health Council—Judy Carr and Robert Muncie. Campus Chest—Bert Siegel (Chairman), Robert Siebert, and Saul Goldwasser. Jacoby Lecture—Dave Barr, Mike Fastoso, Nick Panuzio, Wes Hobby, June Bartram, and Fred Fiorella.

Convocation—Robert Siebert (Chairman), Robert Muncie, and Dave Barr. NSA—Bernie Milove (Chairman), June Bartram, Roberta Aronson, and Jan Fine. Board of Governors—Sam Goldberg (Chairman), Bernie Milove, and Nick Panuzio. Parking—Ber-

Question: What's the first thing you notice when you meet a person?

Marv Racer — The first thing I notice about a person is his eyes. I feel that the eyes are the most expressive feature of a person's face.

Mark Schienbart — It is said that you cannot tell a book by its cover. However, this does not hold true for man. I believe that "clothes maketh the man."

Fran Crystal — As a Fashion Merchandising student I observe the person's clothes. It shows his taste and personality. On a college campus dress is informal, but must be appropriate.

Myrna Klosk — The first thing I notice about an individual is his smile. I feel that through a person's smile you can tell the true essence of his personality.

Wes Hobby — The first thing I notice is a person's eyes. To me, the eyes tell more about a person than anything else. I like bright, sparkling eyes that meet yours head on, unashamedly, straight forwardly and full of friendliness. (I might say the kind of eyes my wife has).

Judy Elias — The first things I notice about a person are their facial expressions and the tone of voice they use when addressing you.

The Editor Speaks

You're Dick Fresolone and you're through. You never quite reached the greatness predicted for you as a flashy 140 pound half back from Hamden (Conn.) High School. Not because you didn't try—you did. You don't know the word quit, you gave everything you had, you were a true football hero, on and off the field.

This, your Senior year, looked like the year for you. You came to fall practice, in August, with the rest of the team. They elected you co-captain, quite an honor for a 5'6", 150 pounder, but you deserved it. You, Dick Fresolone, had earned the respect of your teammates, and this year was their way of repaying you for giving everything you had for three years.

You were a shining light in high school. You played in the backfield consisting of Dom Balogh, Fresolone, Earl Geyer and Wally Anderson. Balogh is now making a name for himself at Brown, Geyer at New Haven State and Anderson at Dartmouth.

You went to Arnold College in 1952, but even though you won your letter you never quite made the starting backfield. In 1953 Arnold and Bridgeport became one, and you were lost in the shuffle of backs that season and saw very little action, as your Sophomore year passed you by.

Last season you finally got your starting position. You were at halfback in a backfield consisting of Don Ardito, Fresolone, John Esposito and Roland Emery. You began looking like the Fresolone of old, even though UB lost all of its games. You, like the rest of the players, gave it all that you had. At the end of the season you were the team's leading ground gainer. Another step toward your future stardom in your senior year.

The year is here now, Dick, but you are through. You have a cast covering your entire right leg, from an injury suffered in the New Hampshire game. But, what was that you told me when I visited you last week in the Bridgeport Hospital "If they take this cast off soon enough, I'm liable to be back playing before the season is over." That's you all right—a great competitor who'll never quit.

Dick, you emphasize and are a true example of the spirit and determination of the University of Bridgeport football team.

Victory Starved UB vs. Winless Hofstra

By Larry Babich

Something should give this Saturday night as the University of Bridgeport football team travels to Hempstead, L. I. to play the Flying Dutchmen of Hofstra College. Both teams have yet to win a ball game this season, as the Dutchmen have been on the losing end of the score three times and UB twice.

The Purple Knights absorbed their second defeat of the season, last Saturday night, as the Vikings of Upsala College handed the Kaymen a 25-0 loss, in a hard fought ball game at Hedges Stadium.

Viking halfbacks, Billy Helt and Freddie Hill, spoiled UB's homecoming game as they accounted for all four touchdowns, two each. Helt also kicked one extra point.

Eddie "Rebel" Hall, was one of coach Kondratovich's bright spots as he made the Knights' best ground gains. In the fourth quarter, "Rebel" circled left end for 35 yards and almost reached paydirt, except for a desperation tackle by Upsala fullback, Bill Baldante on the Viking 6 yard line.

The Knights' forward wall of center Bill Barstow, who replaced the injured Dave Deep, guards Gene Pulaski and Gary Engler, and tackles George Stropparo, Ernie Levitt and Frank Alois received praise from coach Kay who stated, in the locker-room after the game, that the boys looked much improved since the New Hampshire game even though they played without the services of co-captains Deep and Dick Fresolone.

Coach Kay also made mention that both Joe Marrucco, acting co-captain with Stropparo, and Jerry McDougall will be used at both quarterback and fullback in the coming Hofstra game.

Hofstra lost to St. Lawrence last week, 19-0, while Upsala trimmed St. Lawrence 17-2, the week before. So the UB-Hofstra game could be the stepping stone to get the Kaymen out of their losing ways and back to their winning ways of 1953.

McKeonmen Kick Against Rider College Saturday

By Hal Roberts

Saturday afternoon, the University of Bridgeport soccer team will play its second straight home game of the season as they oppose Rider College from Trenton, N. J. The Purple and White opened their 1955 campaign Tuesday against Hillyer College from Hartford, Conn., whom they defeated 4-1 as Mike Belmont scored three goals.

Last season the team ended up with a highly respectable record of nine wins against one setback. The lone blemish on the record came at the hands of Albany State Teachers by a 2-0 score. UB defeated Rider last year by a 2-1 count.

Coach John McKeon has 12 returning lettermen back from last season's highly rated team. Heading the list are co-captains Nick D'Aluisio and Gordie Cochrane. Cochrane was runner-up to Mike Belmont in scoring last season, as they recorded 27 goals between them, 17 of them were Belmont's. Bob Stevenson and Mark Schienbart, two defensive stars from last year's team, are also back in the fold.

Jimmy "Mouse" Davins will be returning to the goalie position, where, last year, he compiled 4 shutouts and allowed but 10 goals to go past him.

Coach McKeon is looking forward to another winning season, and with the majority of last season's team returning and a host of top flight sophomores, it looks like a very promising season.

Phantom Prowler Rumored At UB

An unidentified person telephoned The SCRIBE office late Monday evening asserting that a "Phantom Prowler" was roaming about the campus.

The main target of the alleged trespasser was supposed to be Stratford Hall.

In checking on this rumor, telephone calls were placed to various campus residences, including Stratford Hall and others in the area said there was no sign of any prowler.

(Editor's note): It is asked that coeds do not walk alone in the evening, to or from classes. It is further advised that girls on bell duty admit no one unless the caller's identity is known.

LUCKY DROODLES! LUCKY DROODLES! YEA!

WHAT'S THIS?

For solution, see paragraph below.

A FLIGHT OF IMAGINATION prompted the Doodle above—it's titled: Flying saucer with Lucky-smoking crew. But it's a down-to-earth fact that Luckies taste better than any other cigarettes—and for down-to-earth reasons. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that light, mild tobacco is toasted to taste even better . . . cleaner, fresher, smoother. So, "Glurg shrdlu!" (In saucer language, that means, "For taste that's out of this world, light up a Lucky!")
